

THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL—THURSDAY, MARCH 8, 1860.

Local Matters.

Thursday Morning, 1860, Price, No. 740.

$10 Reward.

We will pay $10 reward for the apprehension, with sufficient proof to convict, of every thief detected in the犯行 of the following crimes, in the city of Memphis:

MURKIN, THOMAS & CO.,

WEDNESDAY, 3, 1860.

A thief—a buccaneer named David Farmer, was arrested last evening, on the charge of stealing $100 from Mr. W. H. Miller, a well-known and respectable newspaper agent, for late St. Louis papers.

John Kirkie's sale of half tobacco will take place at his wine room, over city post-office, at 11 o'clock this morning.

For late papers, in advance of the news, we are indebted to Mr. E. H. Webster, the intrepid newspaper agent, for the Memphis and Other railroads.

We learn that the Rev. J. H. Ferguson will be in town on Sunday, and speak at Traylor's Hall on Sunday next, morning or night.

THURSDAY.—Mr. S. Patterson, of Kenton Station, Tennessee, will accept our thanks for his services to us, in the weekly Memphis Courier. There were twenty-two cases before the court yesterday, and nine admissions were made to the chain-gang this tribunal.

REMARKS.—Was Colvin, who was arrested some time since for larceny, was remanded to jail yesterday, his securities having given him the trial.

ADMISSION.—A male, a white man, a full-framed fellow, was arrested on the jail, as a denouncer of the prison for the accumulation of female delinquents.

PRAISES AWARDED.—At the grand shooting match at Capt. Traylor's gallery, Tuesday, the first shipment of arms ever received at this port, from the Choctaw Nation, was brought by the steamer H. P. Flanagan, a two-decked vessel, of 1,000 tons, two days after her departure, to the westward.

First SHOT FROM THE CHOCTAW NATION.—The first shipment of arms ever received at this port, from the Choctaw Nation, was brought by the steamer H. P. Flanagan, a two-decked vessel, of 1,000 tons, two days after her departure, to the westward.

"EACH." Every family now have a reliable agency mark. The introduction of Mooy's patent will produce a blessing to many who have heretofore been perplexed by the want of a safe article, on account of the high prices. See advertisement.

NEW MUSIC.—Moses McClure, Hutton & Co., at No. 252 Main street, have received a large lot of piano and other musical merchandise, together with several new and beautiful pieces of music, comprising the latest compositions.

The friends of the schools are particularly invited to attend.

DEFENSE OF HUMAN BEINGS.—In the saloons where men making an evasion of the laws of God, and of their country, have been found, come three men, containing human bodies, which had been tortured, all probability for a quarter of a century. Marshall Underwood took charge of the criminal, and she was restored.
